

```

import requests
from bs4 import BeautifulSoup

The URL of the website you want to scrape
URL = "https://quotes.toscrape.com/"

def scrape_website():
    # Send an HTTP GET request to the website
    headers = {"User-Agent": "Mozilla/5.0 (Windows NT 10.0; Win64; x64)"} response = requests.get(URL, headers=headers)

    # Check if the request was successful (Status Code 200)
    if response.status_code != 200:
        print(f"Failed to retrieve the webpage. Status code: {response.status_code}") return

    # Parse the HTML content using BeautifulSoup and the built-in html.parser
    soup = BeautifulSoup(response.text, 'html.parser')

    # Find all elements containing quote data (on this site, they are inside )
    quotes = soup.find_all('div', class_='quote') print(f"Scraping data from: {URL}\n" + "-"*50)

    # Loop through each quote element to extract specific pieces of data
    for quote in quotes:
        # Extract the text of the quote (inside )
        text = quote.find('span', class_='text').text.strip()

        # Extract the author's name (inside <small class="author">)
        author = quote.find('small', class_='author').text.strip()

        # Extract tags associated with the quote (inside )
        tags_elements = quote.find_all('a', class_='tag') tags = [tag.text.strip() for tag in tags_elements]

        # Print the structured results to the console
        print(f"Quote: {text}") print(f"Author: {author}") print(f"Tags: {' '.join(tags)}") print("-" * 50)

if __name__ == "__main__":
    scrape_website()

```